How we process the personal data

The data processing is carried out through operations, with or without the aid of electronic tools, which may consist of the collection, recording, organization, storage, interconnection, limitation, modification, consultation, use, communication, cancellation, destruction of data. The data processing is carried out by the Data Controller, by authorized personnel or by Data Processors specifically appointed by the Data Controller.

If we intend to further process your personal data for a purpose other than that for which they were collected, before proceeding with such further processing, we will provide you with all the relevant information, requesting your consent if necessary.

It may happen that we will use, for the purpose of direct promotion of our services, the e-mail coordinates provided by You in the context of a previous sale or provision of service, even without You expressly giving Your consent and provided that these are products or services similar to those previously provided. However, you will always be able to opt out of receiving this information, initially or during subsequent communications.

Recipients of the personal data

Your personal data is not disclosed. They may only come to know of our authorized personnel and / or Data Processors acting on our behalf with contracts that provide for an adequate level of protection of personal data, as established by the GDPR. The data can be communicated in general to all the subjects to which the communication is necessary for the correct fulfillment of the purposes of the data processing or for obligations imposed by the law (for example administrative, accounting, fiscal).

Transfers of personal data to third countries or international organizations

The Controller does not transfer the Data in non-EU countries. We assure, however, that should this become necessary, this transfer will take place on the basis of an adequacy decision by the European Commission pursuant to art. 45 of the GDPR. If necessary, the transfer of data in non- EU Countries takes place for the execution of the contract concluded with the interested party or the execution of pre-contractual measures adopted at the request of the interested party, as provided for by art. 49 lett. b) GDPR; in this case, the Data Controller ensures the adoption of adequate guarantees of confidentiality and security.

Period of storage

The data are kept for the time necessary for the pursuit of the purposes indicated in the statement, for legal obligations or to assert a right in court. Once the limitation period has expired, personal data will be permanently deleted or, alternatively, anonymised.

For purposes of direct Marketing / newsletters of the Controller, the personal data will be stored until your revocation of consent or request for cancellation or for a maximum period of 24 months.

Your rights

You have the following rights: the right to access your personal data; the right to request the rectification of the inaccurate personal data and to obtain the integration of incomplete data, including by means of providing a supplementary statement; the right to request the erasure of the personal data (under conditions indicated in Article 17 GDPR); the right to limit the data processing (as indicated in Article 18 GDPR); the right to object to the data processing; the right to receive the personal data, provided to a controller, in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format and have the right to transmit those data to another controller without hindrance from the controller to which the personal data have been provided (right to data portability); the right not to be subject to a decision based solely on automated processing, including profiling, which produces legal effects or similarly significantly affects; the right to lodge a complaint with the Italian supervisory authority www.garanteprivacy.it
